

Please don't change New Jersey's Do Not Call Law. It is working, I appreciate being able to have time with my family and not be hassled by telemarketers. I wish they could stop the companies that you do have accounts with from trying to sell you more.